

Talbert, Lilly

From: Talbert, Lilly
Sent: Monday, April 14, 2014 4:18 PM
To: Talbert, Lilly
Subject: VCW VIEW: April 14th

Women Business Owners Conference
Thursday, May 15th, 8:45 am – 4 pm
Essex Resort and Spa

More info. Registration includes all sessions, light b-fast, nutritious lunch & fun! Early Bird (until May 7): $99 Member & $129 Guest/After May 7: $129 Member & $159 Guest

*

Norwich University's College of Graduate and Continuing Studies (CGCS)
Presents former United States Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice
Thursday, June 19, at 10 a.m. in Shapiro Field House

Rice will share remarks as part of the Todd Lecture Series, and the event is free and open to the public. Tickets to attend Dr. Rice's keynote will be available on a first come, first serve basis, and pre-registration for this event is required. Please go here to register.

*

This year's winner of the Deborah Pickman Clifford Vermont Women's History Prize is Kali Adams, a homeschool student from Shelburne, Vermont. Kali's project, titled "Myra Bradwell: Law Relating to Women" received the $250 prize, sponsored by the Vermont Commission on Women's Education and Research Foundation in honor of Deborah Pickman Clifford. Ms. Pickman gave of her talents and time as a writer and historian to the advisory board of the Vermont Women's History Project.

*

Champlain Valley Office of Economic Opportunity's (CVOEO) Weatherization Program has an opening for an Associate Director. Learn more about this position at www.cvoeo.org

*

Film Showing and Community dialogue of the Bess O'Brien documentary The Hungry Heart
Wednesday, April 30th, 11 AM with community dialogue & pizza to follow at 12:30 PM
Vermont Adult Learning: Windsor County
363 River Road, N. Springfield, VT 05150

More info or to RSVP: Tracey Jerome at 802-546-0879 or tjerome@vtadulthoodlearning.org

*

The Vermont Agency of Human Services, the Vermont Agency of Education and Building Bright Futures announced completion of Vermont's Early Childhood Action Plan earlier this month. The plan outlines strategies to accomplish the goals of the Vermont's Early Childhood Framework, which include: a healthy start for all children; families and communities play a leading role; high-quality opportunities for all children; invest now for our future; and know we're making a difference. Read the Action plan on the Building Bright Futures' website. Questions/comments to kmobbs@buildingbrightfutures.org or call Building Bright Futures at 802-876-5010.

Vermont Early Childhood Alliance Early Childhood Public Awareness Campaign

A statewide campaign of Vermont organizations and individuals funded by a collaboration of private foundations seeking to raise awareness about the importance of the earliest years in the lives of Vermont's children. Click here to get involved or plan to attend the campaign launch event on Friday, April 25th in Burlington.

Vermont Early Childhood Alliance Standing Committees

Consider joining a standing committee of the Alliance: Community Organizing, Engagement and Education Committee; Parent, Grandparent & Caregiver Partnerships Committee; and Membership Committee click here to read descriptions and sign up for a group to be convened this spring and summer.

*

Vermont Works for Women Boot Camp Coordinator Position opening

This is a 20-24 hr/week position coordinating all aspects of a 4-6 day exploratory "Boot Camp" related to construction in the Burlington area. This person would be recruiting 10-12 diverse participants (ages 18-60, with varying levels of education and work history), locating training space, cultivating partnerships with area employers, teaching some curriculum on the soft skills of employability, scheduling trainer(s) in the technical skills and coordinating all aspects of program delivery as well as some post-program follow up. We're looking for a highly autonomous, highly organized instructor/coordinator who has excellent communication and teaching skills. Interested parties should send a cover letter and resume to rjolly@vtworksforwomen.org.

*

The latest report from CLASP (Center for Law and Social Policy) titled Scrambling for Stability: The Challenges of Job Schedule Volatility and Child Care highlights how job scheduling and child care challenges can prevent workers from advancing in their jobs and ensuring their children are well-cared for.

*

Women's Economic Opportunity Conference Saturday, September 20, Vermont Technical College in Randolph Center

Please mark your calendars for Senator Leahy's 18th Annual Women's Economic Opportunity Conference, to be held on Saturday, September 20, 2014, at the Vermont Technical College in Randolph Center. The conference is offered at no charge to participants and draws hundreds of women for a full day of workshops tailored to meet a range of talents and interests. Free child care is also provided. More details will be posted soon at Senator Leahy's website: www.leahy.senate.gov.

*

Lund's 6th Annual Ride for Children

Sunday, June 1, 2014

Join the 4 mile family ride or 16, 30 or 55 mile routes around scenic Vermont. All the money raised through registration fees and sponsorships goes directly to Lund's education, treatment, adoption and family support programs that help children and families thrive. Post ride festivities, at 50 Joy Drive in South Burlington, include live music, delicious food, kids' activities, raffle prizes and the conclusion of a three day Terry tent sale. More info here.

**

Vermont Commission on Women (VCW)

VIEW Message – Vermont Information Exchange for Women

126 State Street, Montpelier, Vermont 05633-6801

800-881-1561 | women.vermont.gov | Find us on Facebook

Celebrating 50 Years of Progress | 1964 - 2014

Share your VIEW: forward this email to colleagues who share your interest in improving the lives of Vermont women and girls. | Get the VIEW: it's easy! Reply to this message and include "subscribe" in the subject heading. | Missed a VIEW? Find recent VIEW messages on our website: women.vermont.gov. | To unsubscribe: reply and add the word "unsubscribe" in the subject heading.